

HANNAH MICHAELS

Hannah, a passionate fashion student at St. Thomas University, pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Fashion Merchandising with minors in Fashion Design and Political Science. With over 18 years of dance experience and a background as a full-time student-athlete in volleyball, I thrive in dynamic environments where creativity and performance intersect.

As the founder of Be The One, a nonprofit dedicated to mentoring young girls, I started this organization to empower the next generation through guidance and support. My own experiences have shown me the transformative power of mentorship in achieving personal goals, and I am committed to providing opportunities for young girls to dream big and pursue their aspirations. I'm also a proud pageant queen competing in the Miss America organization, where I've honed my public speaking skills and dedication to community service. Join me on this exciting journey through the world of fashion and mentorship!

2 Time recipient of the Presidential Achievement Award for her efforts with her non profit.

MILADYS Delgado

Meet Miladys, an aspiring Registered Nurse whose passion for healthcare is as strong as her dance moves. With 12 years of dancing experience, she showcased her skills on World of Dance, proving that precision and grace extend beyond the hospital walls. As a women's health advocate, she strives to empower and educate. When not advocating or hitting the dance floor, you'll find her whipping up delicious treats, immersed in a good book, or enjoying the great outdoors. Join her journey as she combines the art of healing and the art of dance in a harmonious balance.

TAKIYAH BELFORT

Meet Takiyah, a trailblazer in the Junior Orange Bowl Little Sister program, where she etched her name in history as the first African American to be crowned.

With over 3000 hours of community service, she's not just breaking barriers but building bridges in her community. A dedicated member of a liturgical dance group, she seamlessly blends her passion for performing arts with her commitment to advocacy.

Takiyah stands tall as an advocate for BE S.A.F.E., addressing human trafficking and missing persons' crises.

A student at FIU in Miami, Takiyah will obtain a degree in Psychology with a minor in performing arts, a testament to her multifaceted talents. Beyond academia, she champions body positivity, believing in the power of self-love and acceptance. Graduating high school with honors, Takiyah has not only excelled academically but has proven to be a force to be reckoned with on the stage as a talented singer and dancer. Her journey is an inspiration, blending achievements, advocacy, and artistry into a vibrant tapestry of impact and excellence.
